

Test your programming skills

---

You are given the coordinates of the corners of two rectangles. See illustration below. For these numbers, the rectangles clearly overlap. You can visualize a set of coordinates for which they won't overlap.

Problem: Given coordinates of two rectangles, find out if the rectangles overlap or not. Your solution should work for any position of the rectangles.

